5. Announcements and Future Agenda Items
 - a) April is Carpool Challenge month! Become a member of Alamo Commutes, find a carpool match, and log your trips to be eligible to win a $50 cash gift card. Each trip is an entry. Looking to collect the commemorative medal, look for Alamo Commutes at San Antonio Fiesta events and follow them on social media! For more information, contact Lily at teran@alamoareampo.org or visit the website at Alamo Commutes - Presented by AAMPO.
 - b) May is National Bike Month! Join AAMPO and partner agencies for a month filled with cycling events. Alamo Commutes is offering cash card prizes for members who log cycling trips. AAMPO will be hosting an Energizer Station on Bike to Work Day and many other events throughout the region. If you are interested in participating, or would like more information, please contact Salomon Mendoza, AAMPO Multimodal Planner, at mendoza@alamoareampo.org.
 - c) AAMPO has launched its Walkable Community Workshop initiative for the King William and Lavaca neighborhoods. Community members are invited to share comments on pedestrian and bicycle safety improvements through the interactive web application available at www.alamoareampo.org/ATP/Southtown. Residents and other interested members of the public may also attend the in-person workshop scheduled for April 11th at 2:00 PM, at the San Antonio Mennonite Church, 1443 S St Mary's St, San Antonio, TX 78210.
 - d) The Multimodal Regional Thoroughfare Study, Subtask 4.7 in the FY26-27 UPWP, procurement has resulted in Cambridge Systematics being approved to enter into contract negotiations with AAMPO. The tentative kick-off for the effort is set for May 2026.
 - e) The AAMPO office will be closed on April 24, 2026 in observance of Battle of Flowers holiday.
 - f) The Alamo Area Metropolitan Planning Organization (AAMPO) and ATAC is hosting a public Walk and Bike Night in place of the May 13, 2026 ATAC meeting. The purpose of the event will be to spread awareness, information, and create a space to ask questions about current active transportation projects in the region. The Walk and Bike Night is 5:30 PM to 7:30 PM at William R. Sinkin Eco Centro, 1802 N Main Ave, San Antonio, TX 78212.
